Disaster Preparedness For Your Organization

Natural disasters and manmade catastrophes can bring day to day activities to a screeching halt. According to the Federal Emergency Management Agency, 40% of businesses impacted by a disaster never reopen. This workshop will help businesses, non-profit organizations and government offices to think about business continuity and disaster preparedness plans. This workshop will provide simple tools to make your business ready and resilient in the face of disaster.

This workshop is FREE and open to businesses, non-profit organizations and government entities in Jefferson County. A complimentary lunch will be provided to all attendees.

Tuesday, October 25, 2016
9:30 am—2:30 pm
